Adobe-Japan1-4—2000

- Japan’s three original era name square ligatures were included in Supplement 0—1992
 - CIDs 7621 through 7623—明治, 大正, and 昭和
- The one for Heisei was added in Supplement 1—1993
 - CID+8323—平成
- Vertical forms for all four era name square ligatures were added in Supplement 4—2000
 - CIDs 12041 through 12044—翌, 杳, 翳, and 叢
 - First implemented by the original Hong Kong-based Fontworks in the 1990s
 - Referenced in Table 2 of UAX #50 (Unicode Vertical Text Layout)
 - Japanese fonts do not universally support the vertical forms—their use in vertical layout is optional
